Å Hooks off the teeing ground will be out of bounds unless a little luck sends them back to the fairway. Å Negotiate the valley with two well struck shots and fire at the pin on the uphill two-tiered green. This awesome par 5 meanders along the Roark Creek Valley. Å A Tee shots should be aimed at the Sycamore; a little right or left is fine. Å A Cutting some off the left will embolden the golfer to go for the green. Å To far right and you may have to slice your approach around the trees bordering the right. Å Hooks find the babbling Roark Creek. Å An easy hole, but doneAAA! be greedy. Å This tee shot must hug the bunker to allow a straight approach to the green. Å Short bunkering is deceiving. Å There is 20 yards from the bunkers to the front of the green, but they appear to be on the green edge. Å Shots pushed right from the teeing ground insure bogies and a score inflating adventure. Å The green has many subtle undulations, so look at the putts from both sides of the hole. Å A great finish to a memorable nine. Å This hole can only be played one straight shot at a time. Å Tee shots must clear or avoid the fairway bunker on the left, but be short of the right bunker. Å Slices find Roark Creek, but this lateral hazard may come into play again as you fire a middle to long iron to the green. Å This green is well bunkered, but a straight running shot will creep onto the green. Å Two-putt then visit The LedgeStone Grille at the turn for your reward, reward.
